Psalm 119:9-32

Last week in VBS kids and volunteers learned that God's Word is true, comforting, surprising, life-changing, and for everyone. The longest psalm, and chapter, in the Bible is devoted to the glory and truth of God's eternal Word.

How does the psalmist see God's law? In what ways might his perspective seem strange to someone unfamiliar with the Bible?

What claims does the psalmist make for what God's Word provides him? Are any of these especially meaningful to you now?

How has knowing God's Word saved you from pursuing (or continuing in) a wrong direction?
